WOLF SAFETY LAMP COMPANY LTD

DECLARATION OF CONFORMITY

November 2015

Directive on Batteries and Accumulators and Waste Batteries and Accumulators
(2006/66/EC)

The Wolf Safety Lamp Company Limited of Saxon Road, Sheffield, England, hereby declares that all ATEX Compliant equipment manufactured by the Company for supply to the European Union, is compliant with the requirements above mentioned Batteries Directive (and any subsequent amendments).

Furthermore, it can be confirmed that the Wolf Safety Lamp Company is Registered Battery Producer (Reg no. BPRN00360) and a member of a Battery Compliance Scheme.

To aid with the safe and proper disposal and recycling of batteries, the Wolf Safety Lamp Company offers a take back service for waste portable batteries. We will recycle, free of charge, any batteries returned to us by our customers. This free service does not include the cost of carriage for the return of batteries to our premises.
